Catch the moon

Stefan Andersson

Intro: G C/G G C/G

G C/G
Can you hear him whistling a little tune
G C/G
It’s about him trying to catch the moon
G C/G
He’s waiting for his father, he’ll be coming home soon
G C/G G C/G G C/G
He’s waiting for his mother this afternoon

G C/G
He can’t hear what they say, he don’t know what they want
G C/G
but he runs away ‘cause he fears the gun
G C/G
He waited in vain it was something they’ve done
G Dsus4
He don’t know what it is but he knows he’s alone

Em Hm
Some put their trust in the east, some put their trust in the west
Am G
Some put their trust in the bomb, some put their trust in their mums
Em                             Hm
Some put their trust in a God, some put their money in a bank
Am                                 Cmaj7
Some put their faith in the stars, some put their trust in the guitar

G                      C/G
Killing has no reason, killing has no soul
G                     C/G
Killing has no right, killing has no goal
G                             C/G
Now you might think it’s easy, to cross into his mind
G                             Dsus4
But his life is real now like the picture in his eyes

Em                                Hm
Some put their trust in the east, some put their trust in the west
Am                                G
Some put their trust in the bomb, some put their trust in their mums
Em                                Hm
Some put their trust in a God, some put their money in a bank
Am                                 Cmaj7
Some put their faith in the stars, some put their trust in the guitar

G                         C/G
Can you hear him whistling a little tune
G                        C/G
It’s about him trying to catch the moon
G                              C/G
He’s waiting for his father, he’ll be coming home soon
G                            Dsus4
He’s waiting for his mother this afternoon

Em                                Hm
Some put their trust in the east, some put their trust in the west
Am                                G
Some put their trust in the bomb, some put their trust in their mums
Em Hm
Some put their trust in politicians, some put their trust in the bottle
Am G
Some put a gun to their heads, some put their trust in the dead
Em Hm
Some put their trust in a God, some put their money in a bank
Am G
Some put their faith in the stars, some put their trust in the guitar

Solo (Em Hm Am G)x2

Em Hm
Some put their trust in the east, some put their trust in the west
Am G
Some put their trust in the bomb, some put their trust in their mums
Em Hm
Some put their trust in a God, some put their money in a bank
Am Cmaj7
Some put their faith in the stars, some put their trust in the guitar

C/G
Can you hear him whistling a little tune
C/G G
It’s about him trying to catch the moon